Christy Horowitz is a knowledgeable trial attorney and a compassionate advocate for her clients with a focus on family and criminal law. Christy started her career as an attorney working as an associate in a family law firm and proceeded to serve as a Deputy District Attorney in the Santa Barbara District Attorney's Office where she handled misdemeanor and felony prosecutions of criminal matters. She gained valuable trial experience in the areas of domestic violence, child endangerment, driving under the influence, sex crimes, narcotics, theft and vehicular manslaughter among others. She also resolved matters through preventive litigation and mediation including but not limited to issues regarding mental competency and health. She has spoken at numerous events on internet safety and the dangers of cyber-bullying.

Christy received her bachelor's degree in Communication from the University of Alabama where she graduated summa cum laude, was on the Dean's List, and received the Academic Excellence Award for Best Senior Paper in the Administrative Sciences. She attended law school locally at the Santa Barbara
